Data Protection

In joining the Society you give us the details above so that we can carry out the legitimate business of the Society. There are, however, a number of other areas where we now need your specific consent. Please tick the boxes below where this is given. Please also read our full Privacy Notice in the Members' Information area of our website, or ask the Secretary for a printed copy if unable to access the internet.

Acceptable means of contact : email post telephone mobile

I agree to the following:

My name appearing in concert programmes

My image in photograph or video, individually or in a group being taken and used in print or digitally

Receiving information on events being organised by groups other than Richmondshire Choral Society

NB. These will not normally be sent individually to members but the information may be included in a more general newsletter from which it will not be removed if you don't consent.

This information will be kept in the Society's database and will not be divulged outside the Society without your permission. When you leave the Society you are asked to inform the Membership Secretary, preferably in writing or by email, so that your details can be removed from our active database. Your details as a past member may be kept separately in case we need to contact you in the future.
